

Tar River Reading Council

Local Affiliate of the International Reading Association

2010-2011 Meeting Schedule

Are you up-to-date with your reading instruction?
Do you feel confident that you are supporting all of your readers?
Need some ideas for engaging your “digital natives” in reading?

Please come and join this professional learning community! All teachers, preservice teachers, and administrators are welcome to attend any or all meetings.

DATE	PRESENTER	TOPIC	LOCATION
September 16, 2010	Ava Bevins President North Carolina Reading Association	What Can Reading Councils Do For You?	A.G. Cox Middle School 2657 Church Street Winterville, NC 28590
October 21, 2010	Johna Faulconer East Carolina University Megan Ormond Greene Central High School	Engaging Older Readers	C.M. Eppes Middle 1100 S. Elm Street Greenville, NC 27858
November 18, 2010	Terry Atkinson East Carolina University	*Reading Online	Elmhurst Elementary 1815 West Berkley Road Greenville, NC 27858
January 20, 2011	Brian Housand East Carolina University	*Tech Tools to Support Literacy Teaching and Learning	Oakwood School 4000 MacGregor Downs Road Greenville, NC 27834
February 17, 2011	Jeanne Swafford University of North Carolina, Wilmington	Read Alouds and Web Resources: A Great Combination!	Wintergreen School 4710 County Home Rd. Greenville, NC 27858
April 14, 2011	TBA	TBA	Creekside Elementary 431 W. Forlines Road Winterville, NC 28590

Thursdays 4-6 p.m.

Fun Stuff, Freebies, and Giveaways at Each Meeting

*Bring your own laptop if you have one!

RSVP and questions: Elizabeth Swaggerty, swaggertye@ecu.edu 252.328.4970 (RSVP helpful, but not required.)